Chapter 1 by Alvin

It's the year 2058, and so much has changed. The old world was gone. Following a massive uprising in Europe, Asia and Africa, they united as one super nation. In a retaliation, The Americas formed the other. Decades of fighting between the two ensued. The two battled on until eventually, they were slowly weakened by a worldwide famine and a decade long Ice Age which left the world frozen in deep ice. The only retreat, the only place left untouched was Australia.

Eventually, the Australian government was overrun by a group of rebels as ships escaping the Great War looked to Australia for asylum. They took over the country, ruling with an iron fist. The commoners were forced to work in factories, on farms and in blue collar jobs. The rebels in their Hold Capital on the East coast, oversaw the entire country.

I was a young man when the Great War ended, 23 years old and lived in a town called Newcastle, and this is my story...
